

1 READING Dress code¹

____ / 10

We at Greenfield High School think all students should concentrate on their lessons and not on what other students are wearing, so please come to school dressed for school and not for a rock concert.

Heavy Metal is fine, but not when you wear it to school, so no piercings please.

If you have tattoos, make sure no one can see them at school.

5 Girls:

Jeans and T-shirts are fine, but there are some parts of your body that others don't always want to see, so no short tops, please. If your classmates can see your stomach, then your top is too short, and you will have to go to the head teacher's office². Here you will get an XXL-T-shirt to wear for the rest of your lessons.

Boys:

10 Perhaps you think the baggier the better, but baggy trousers are for your free time, not for school. And don't wear your cap to school.

Perhaps you think your clothes are great and that you look good, but others might think you look stupid – do you want them to laugh at you? Of course you don't! Show you are proud to be a student at Greenfield High, that you want to be a good student and also want to help others to learn – and follow the dress code.

¹ dress code ['dres kəʊd] Kleiderordnung ² office ['ɒfɪs] Büro

Tick the right box.

	Right	Wrong	Not in the text
1 The dress code tells students what they should and should not wear.	5
2 Students at Greenfield High School must wear a uniform.
3 Tattoos are OK if you can't see them.
4 Girls must wear skirts.
5 Girls should not wear short tops.
6 Students won't have to do homework if they wear the right clothes to school.
7 Students who don't follow the dress code will have to go home.
8 The head teacher has large T-shirts for girls who show their stomachs.
9 Boys can wear caps but not baggy trousers.
10 Students who follow the dress code show they are proud of their school.

2 MEDIATION A camping tour to Algonquin Park

_____/14

Your family is staying in Canada. This weekend you are going on a camping trip to Algonquin Park. The park ranger wants to tell you something about the park and about the park rules.

Help your parents to understand what the ranger says and ask him what they want to know.

Ranger Welcome to Algonquin Park. To make sure you enjoy your trip I would like to tell you something about the park and about the park rules.

Mum Okay, er heißt uns willkommen. Und dann?

You Er wird uns _____

Ranger This park opened in 1893 and it has 7,630 square kilometres of forests, lakes and rivers.

You Der Park _____

Dad Frag mal bitte, ob es Regeln fürs Campen gibt.

You Are there any _____

Ranger You can camp in special camp areas and you can have an open fire there. And please boil your drinking water.

You Excuse me, what does boil mean?

Ranger That means you have to heat the water to 100° Celsius.

You Zelten ist _____

und _____

Außerdem _____

Ranger And please take all your rubbish home with you.

You _____

Mum Frag ihn bitte noch, was wir für unsere Wanderungen brauchen.

You What do _____

Ranger Make sure you take water, a map and a little lamp with you.

Mum Wasser sollen wir mitnehmen und was noch?

You _____

Mum Thank you very much.

Ranger You're welcome. Enjoy your time here.

3 WORDS A newspaper report

____ / 8

Complete the text with the matching numbers from the box. Sometimes more than one number matches. Choose the best one.

150-kilogram • 50 per cent • seven-year • ten-mile • thirty-minute • three-week • two-hour • two-week

A _____ bear attacked a young Canadian girl. It happened during the family's _____ holiday in Jasper National Park. After a _____ walk the family had lunch at a nice picnic place. Suddenly a bear appeared and attacked the _____ -old daughter. Luckily, her dad had a gun¹ and the bear left. The family called the paramedics and soon a helicopter arrived. It was a _____ flight to the hospital where the girl had a _____ operation. After a _____ stay at the hospital she was allowed to go home. Now she is okay again. The park ranger told us that she was very lucky because in _____ of all attacks the bear kills its victim.

¹gun [gʌn] Gewehr

4 GRAMMAR My family

____ / 18

Read this Inuit family history which is told by Iluak, an Inuit boy. Put in the correct forms of the simple past or the past perfect.

My father _____ (be born) in Kugluktuk in Nunavut in 1965. When I _____ (be) younger, I _____ (like) listening to stories about how my family had lived up there in the North before the internet and modern media _____ (come) to Nunavut. My dad _____ (tell) me how they _____ (catch) fish and seals¹, how they _____ (spend) their evenings with games and music. In 1986 my dad _____ (move) to Whitehorse in Yukon Territory. He _____ (just finish) Netsilik School and wanted to do Business Studies. In Whitehorse he _____ (meet) my mother, who was also studying there. Five years later they _____ (move) back to Kugluktuk. They _____ (finish) their studies at Everest College in Whitehorse and _____ (already find) interesting jobs in Kugluktuk. In 1993 my parents _____ (get married). They _____ (already make) some money and wanted to start a family. Two years later I _____ (be born). In the last ten years our lives have changed a lot. Before we _____ (have) internet in Nunavut, people had lived a very traditional life. I _____ (never listen) to hip hop before we had internet, but now my friends and I can listen to all kinds of modern music and buy fashionable clothes over the internet. The old Inuits do not always like this.

5 Grammar A class trip

____/8

Tracy's class is going on a trip, but she wasn't at school when the teacher talked about the class trip. Some of her friends have come to see her to tell her what the teacher said.

- Olivia We're meeting at the station on Monday morning at 8.00. The journey to Algonquin Park takes two hours.
- Julie We're sleeping in cabins and we have to take our own sleeping bags.
- Mike Mrs Hall has booked a boat trip.
- Jamie One evening we are going to have a barbecue.
- Alex We'll be outside a lot. So I hope the weather will be OK.

Write what Tracy told her mum when she came home later. Use reporting verbs in the simple past.

Start like this:

Olivia said that we were ...

6 WRITING A letter to a teen magazine

Alyssa has sent this letter to a teen magazine.

Read and answer it. Tell Alyssa what you are allowed or not allowed to do. Write about 80 words.

Dear Reader

I've got big problems with my parents at the moment. I'm not allowed to do anything! I'm not allowed to watch TV or use my computer after nine o'clock on school nights. My mom always complains about my music and I can't play loud music. I'm not allowed to colour my hair or have piercings. I can't buy my own clothes. Last week I did badly in a test and now I'm not allowed to go out for a week. I'm grounded. It's so unfair! Am I the only one with strict parents? Or are there people out there who've got the same problems? Please write to me.

Your unhappy Alyssa

You could start like this:

Dear Alyssa

I've got big problems with my parents at the moment too ...

or

I don't have any problems with my parents. They aren't too strict ...

